SUNDAY 6 SEPTEMBER

LET'S TALK...

Many of you have started back at school already and some of you start back tomorrow! For some of you it will be a place, others are home schooled!

I always think that a new school year is a good chance for us to make choices about how it is going to be.

It is a chance for us to think again about putting God first at school, trusting him with everything and just like Douglas said in our special teaching today to be brave and trust God!

Starting again can be scary and uncertain, but it is also a time to see God do some great things, he has lots of blessings in store for you.

I challenge you to pray at the start of every school day and then look for the ways that God is trying to bless you throughout your day.

He might give you opportunities to shine and succeed well in your work, opportunities to tell others about him and opportunities to stand up for what is right, or be a good friend. Look out for the blessings!

MEMORY VERSE

SECRET FRIEND

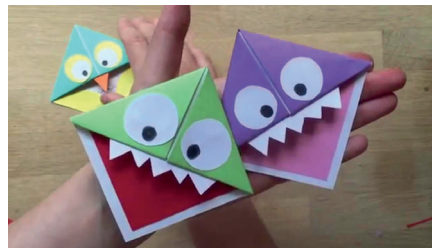

I want to set you a challenge!
Could you be a secret friend to someone who really needs a friend at school?
Why not look out for someone who needs cheering up and secretly do some acts of kindness towards them!

At the end of the week, you could tell them that you have been their secret friend... what a blessing you would be!

CRAFT TIME!

Why not have a go at these creative and fun origami bookmarks that you can use for your school reading book?!

BACK TO SCHOOL TIME CAPSULE!

Why not make your own 'back to school Time Capsule'
Whether you go to a school setting or you are home schooled, this is a great activity to do!

- Find a jar and decorate it.
- Write your hopes, dreams and prayers on pieces of paper
- Put them inside the jar
- Seal it up!
- At the end of the school year, you can open it up and celebrate all that God has done through you during this school year!
